About this Cemetery Property

This well-kept cemetery in north Texas is a lovely location for your loved one. The Good Shepherd garden, where the resting place space for your loved one will be located, has very little availability, so this space is much sought after. The option exists for the space to be either double depth, or for two urns (both options are an additional fee payable to the cemetery). Hurry while this space is available. This grave space is priced well below the current cemetery retail.
